ST. MARTIN'S LANE, LONDON.

TO

MR. R. CAMPBELL THOMPSON, M.A.,

Assistant in the Department of Egyptian and Assyrian Antiquities, British Museum.

PREFACE.

THE present Part contains the texts of one hundred and twelve tablets on which the names of the scribes have been broken away. Of these texts thirteen have been published by WINCKLER, one by JOHNS, and one in IV R. Even if the plan of publication had not made it necessary to republish these texts, I think that the many changes in readings and the additions would be sufficient justification for doing so.

Since the appearance of Part I in 1892, JOHNSTON has made several valuable contributions to the study of Letter Literature in his Epistolary Literature of the Assyrians and Babylonians, in A.J.S.L. and in P.A.O.S.; WINCKLER has published some texts in Texte verschiedenen Inhalts, most of which have been republished in various Parts of the present work with corrections and additions, and he has translated some texts in Altorientalische Forschungen; BERRY has treated the Rm. 2 Collection in A.J.S.L.; DELATTRE has discussed several texts in P.S.B.A.; MARTIN has published a popular lecture under the title Lettres assyriennes et babyloniennes; MEISSNER has given much space to forms of words found in Letters in his Supplement zu den Assyrischen Wörterbüchern; MUSS-ARNOLT has made good use of these texts in his Assyrian Dictionary; and JOHNS has treated the names of officials at considerable length in Assyrian Deeds and Documents, II. Others have also availed themselves of the material published in the preceding Parts of this work.

I am much honoured by the attention shown to this class of literature, and I wish to state here, in answer to a remark by MR. JOHNS in Volume II, 183, that as soon as the texts are published they become public property, and anyone may use them for any purpose he may wish.

This work by my fellow students will in no way interfere with my original plan as described in Part I and again in Part IV, and I see no reason to depart from this plan as outlined ten years ago. Hence I shall continue to publish the texts until the Corpus Epistolarum is completed, and I hope that the Parts will appear more frequently in the future than in the past.

Part VII is in press and will be ready in a few weeks. It will contain (1) the remaining Letters belonging to scribes, a part of whose correspondence has been published in previous volumes; and (2) the complete correspondence of certain scribes. With the appearance of this volume the number of Letter tablets published will be about eight hundred.

Part VIII will be an Index Volume giving, in the Cuneiform characters, Lists of all the Proper Names, Officials Divinities, Countries, Peoples, Cities, etc., found in Parts I-VII, with references to their British Museum registration numbers and to the numbers which they bear in this edition.

Part IX will appear within a year.

I wish especially to acknowledge my obligations to DR. E. WALLIS BUDGE, the Keeper of the Department of Egyptian and Assyrian Antiquities, British Museum, for his courtesy, and for the great assistance which he has afforded me in the preparation of this Part.

I am indebted for many valuable suggestions as to the readings of difficult passages to MR. LEONARD W. KING and MR. R. CAMPBELL THOMPSON, Assistants in the Department.

To MR. R. CAMPBELL THOMPSON, who has made a valuable contribution to the study of a class of literature very closely allied to the Letters, I have the honour to dedicate this volume.
